

International Biometric Society, British and Irish Region

APPLICATION FOR SUPPORTING MEMBERSHIP.

Supporting membership is open to anyone who is a member of another region of the International Biometric Society, and has an interest in the British and Irish Region (BIR). The subscription for supporting membership of the British and Irish Region is FREE. It allows the receipt of electronic copies of the British and Irish Region's quarterly newsletter.

Name _____ Title _____

Organization _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____

Email _____

Region _____ (region for which you are member of the International Biometrics Society)

Interest in the BIR _____ (eg currently working in the British and Irish Region)

Check 3 in each category if applicable:

Fields of Application	M. Marketing	i. Operations Research
A. Agriculture	N. Business	k. Statistical data processing
B. Biology	O. Other	Activities
C. Chemistry	Methodological Techniques	1. Research
D. Demography	a. General	2. Professional consulting
E. Economics	b. Sampling	3. Administration
F. Engineering	c. Design of Experiments	4. Operational activity
G. Genetics	d. Tests	5. Teaching
H. Medicine, Public Health	e. Forecasting	6. Professional writing/editing
I. Psychology	f. Research in Stat. Methods	7. Student
K. Physical Science	g. Theory	8. Other
L. Sociology	h. Quality Control

As a supporting member I agree to notify the membership secretary (currently Diana Cole d.j.cole@kent.ac.uk) should I no longer be a member of another region of the International Biometrics Society. I agree to receipt of the BIR newsletter electronically and will notify the membership secretary of any changes to my email address.

Signature:..... Date:.....

This form should be returned to Diana Cole, School of Mathematics, Statistics and Actuarial Science, University of Kent, Canterbury, Kent, CT2 7NF, UK (or electronically to d.j.cole@kent.ac.uk)